Grapes were whole bunch pressed and left on lees for 5 months to add complexity. Post ferment the wine stayed in 50% old oak and 50% stainless tank (to retain freshness of aromatics) for 4 months.

2023 COOMBE YARRA VALLEY TRIBUTE 'MR MARK' SHIRAZ

Where the Coombe Yarra Valley estate shiraz is bright and purple fruited, this Tribute Shiraz is all about darker and brooding fruits and spice. Aromatics of black currant and mulberry fruits combine with subtle dried spice and white pepper. Entering the voluminous palate, dark concentrated fruits flow into a fine tannin structure. The wine is rich and long, whilst remaining refined and elegant in its reflection of the cool Yarra climate.

2019 COOMBE YARRA VALLEY SHIRAZ

The perfumed nose is rich and brambley – blackberry and wild raspberry with a dusting of smokey pepper. It's fresh, yet full of flavour; the rich fruit is rounded out with garrigue-like dried herbs and black olive. Juicy and more-ish with a lovely grip of peppery tannin to finish.

Located in the heart of the Yarra Valley, the Coombe Yarra Valley vineyards lie just 5 kilometres north of the Melba Estate. Spanning 120 acres, this historic vineyard is among the oldest in the region and remains proudly owned and operated by Dame Nellie Melba's descendants, the Vestey family.

The vineyard's cool-climate conditions are ideally suited to producing premium fruit. Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz and Pinot Gris are grown across carefully considered sites, with each block selected specifically for Coombe Yarra Valley wines and to supply several of Australia's most recognised producers.
